

The James Island Presbyterian Foundation Mission House

has provided simple, comfortable, affordable accommodations for work groups since 1989.

Work groups have provided valuable service at local organizations such as:

Habitat for Humanity
Water Mission International
Rural Missions
Crisis Ministries
Migrant Farm Ministries
My Sister's House

MISSION HOUSE • 1260 FOLLY ROAD
CHARLESTON, SOUTH CAROLINA • 29412

Nearby attractions for time off!

Folly Beach and James Island County Parks are within several miles of the Mission House.

Historic Charleston, only a 15 minute drive, provides a variety of recreational and educational opportunities:

Aquarium | Historic house & plantation tours
Splash Zone Water Park | Fort Sumter
Patriot's Point Maritime Museum | Harbor Tour

Recreational activities

swimming | canoe/kayaking | bowling | roller blading
Splash Zone water park | movie theater | golf

The James Island Presbyterian Foundation is a non-profit organization whose mission is to support the outreach ministry of the James Island Presbyterian Church through development and management of a variety of charitable, religious & educational services.

CHARLESTON,
SOUTH CAROLINA

MISSION HOUSE

*Providing accommodations for volunteer work groups
and faith based retreats*

“Volunteers are not paid,
not because they are worthless,
but because they are
priceless!”

*A ministry of the
James Island Presbyterian Foundation
www.jamesislandpresbyterian.org*

Accommodations:

The Mission House is a large single family home (2,500 square feet) with eight rooms.

Common areas: The combined living room/dining room area provides ample space for meals and group gatherings. The large recreation room contains a ping pong table, bumper pool, games, a TV, VCR/DVD player, and stereo. Two sitting rooms offer a piano and comfortable places to relax.

Sleeping quarters: A maximum of 25 people can be housed in the Mission House on cots, mats and beds (one king, one double, two twin beds and a double pull out couch). Guest provide their own bedding (sleeping bags, sheets, pillows and blankets).

Bathrooms: There is a half bath on the first floor and full bath on the second floor. Additional restrooms and shower facilities are available in the church fellowship hall located approximately 200 feet from the Mission House on the James Island Presbyterian Church campus. Use of showers and restrooms in the fellowship hall are limited to specific times due to use of the building by other groups.

Planning for your stay:

The Mission House has a fully furnished kitchen including fridge, stove, microwave, dishwasher and coffee makers. There is also a washer/dryer and gas grill available.

We provide:

- plates
- glasses
- pots & pans
- flatware
- cleaning products

Guests provide:

- bedding
- towels
- food for meals
(grocery stores near by)
- paper products

Fees:

$7 per night per person
Minimum fee $85
Minimum two night stay
$150 non-refundable deposit

Rules and Helpful Information:

Supervision: Youth Groups are required to have one adult supervisor for 6 volunteers.

Security: the work group leader will be responsible for locking the Mission House and adjacent fellowship hall/ gymnasium.

Cleanliness: Work groups are expected to leave the Mission House clean when they finish their stay. A check list of cleaning tasks is available on our website. Please leave the mission house better than you found it!

Health and Safety: no alcohol, drugs, tobacco, weapons, or pets are permitted.

Contact information:

Mailing Address:

James Island Presbyterian Foundation
1632 Fort Johnson Road
Charleston, SC 29412
www.jamesislandpresbyterian.org

Phone:843-795-3111 • Fax: 843-795-1508

